NHERA Annual Meeting

The annual meeting was held at Above and Beyond Banquets on September 25th. There were about 40 residents in attendance and the facility worked well for our meeting. We would love to see more of you in 2014!

The annual election of officers was held and every board member was re-elected to the position they held in 2013. Thank you to Nancy Rogers, Tim Holman, Tom Sanocki, Deb Minner, Pat Ahern, Mary Amy Sanocki and Deanna Vander Ploeg for their continued commitment!

We want to send out a special thanks to Pat Ahern for all of the projects he personally worked on during this past year. The deck stairs were repaired in record time, the tennis courts have been resurfaced, basketball hoops have been installed and all of the common areas and the park were well-kept during the summer months. Great job, Pat!

Norton Shores Police Officer Jared Passier joined us to discuss how a neighborhood watch works in Norton Shores. He shared a lot of good information on how a watch is done in partnership with the police department. If interested, please contact any board member for further contact information.

Please help out those kids trying to get back and forth to school by clearing those sidewalks this winter…they will thank you for it!

Wishing you and your family safe holiday travels, and a very Merry Christmas and a happy New Year!
